

JUDGES PANEL

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. Application received & acknowledged by Office
2. Application tabled at next Committee meeting
3. Letter to Applicant advising either
 - Their application will be advertised in next newsletter or
 - More information required, or
 - They have been placed on the Provisional Panel to gain more experience in the relevant sections requested
4. Newsletter editor publishes applications in next newsletter after committee meeting
5. Members are given a chance to respond to the committee re the application
6. Application is advised outcome of application and is added to the Judges Panel, as appropriate
7. Applicants who do not possess the prerequisite experience are placed on the Provisional Panel so that they may gain the experience necessary to be included on the Full Panel for the sections requested
8. Provisional Panel Judges are encouraged to attend breed seminars to increase their knowledge of the various breed standards
9. Show Societies & Groups are encouraged to engage people on the Provisional Panel to help them gain experience